SPECIAL NOTICE TO DECEMBER 18 TICKETHOLDERS

Due to rising Covid concerns and the positive tests of two members of the production staff, our December 18 concert will not be live. This is a joint decision of the GBS Board of Trustees, the management of the The Klein, and our musicians, based on guidance from the CDC.

Please note that all GBS tickets are sold on a No Refund/No Return policy, and that this decision was mandated by government guidelines. We know this is cold comfort, coming during a difficult time; if you wish, GBS will credit your ticket purchase to a future concert. Whether you watch the livestream or not, GBS can also count your ticket purchase as a tax-deductible contribution toward our Video Outreach Fund. To access either of these options, please email our office – mark@GBS.org

However, the orchestra will still perform this very special concert, and we hope that our ticketholders will join us for a livestream presentation this evening beginning at 7:45 PM. A link will be sent to all ticketholders with email addresses. For those of you whom we have not been able to contact, please call our office at the number below and we will get the concert link to you during this coming week.

We sincerely regret any inconvenience this may cause. We were expecting the largest indoor audience we've had since the pandemic began, and we will miss seeing you tonight!

Subscribers, please remember that you will be receiving your complimentary concert video soon. We are working hard to have it delivered into your home by Christmas.

We at GBS hope that we can all be together in spirit tonight as our amazing orchestra performs for you.

They'll hear your applause, even from your own homes!

Thank you and happy holidays to you all.
